Condolence Letter

To the Government and People of Japan

The Buddhists and Khmer Society Network (BKSAN) consists of 30 Buddhist organizations, intellectuals and engaged Buddhists around the country of Cambodia and the world, would like to express our sincere sadness, metta (loving-kindness) and karuna (sympathy) to all Japanese people who are being affected by the fearful and devastated earth quake and tsunami.

Please allow us to share your suffering and loss. We, as BKSAN members are with you all at all times, and are humbly willing to do whatever we can from here in order to release your difficulties.

We would like to pray for those who have been passed away by the disaster to reborn in a prosperous and a peaceful world. We also wish the people who are being suffered to soon be released from all pain and difficulties. Finally, we strongly believe that, with your traditional strong will and capacity, you will quickly recover from it.

May all Japanese people live out of fear and suffering!
